

Pivotal Insight awarded contract to provide Program Management Support Services to Army's Program Executive Office for Enterprise Information Systems (PEO-EIS)

Arlington, VA – July 8, 2009 – Pivotal Insight, LLC, a government best practices consulting and research firm, announces an award by the Army's Program Executive Office for Enterprise Information Systems (PEO-EIS) as part of the Savantage PMSS-2 team.

Pivotal Insight, a founding team member, will support the Savantage PMSS-2 Team to provide functional and technical experience to assist PEO-EIS. This support includes program, product, and project management; business process reengineering; information systems security; contingency planning; physical security; enterprise design, integration and consolidation; systems operation and maintenance; integrated logistics support; and other IT related services.

“We are ecstatic to be a key member of this collaborative effort to work with PEO-EIS to support their objectives. This is core to what we do at Pivotal and it provides us the opportunity to increase our long standing business relationship with the Army,” remarked David Bergert, President of Pivotal Insight.
