

Pivotal Insight Announces Contract for Acquisition Planning Support for the Department of Justice, Office of Justice Programs

Washington, DC – October 1, 2006 – Pivotal Insight, LLC, a government best practices consulting and research firm, announces an award by the Department of Justice (DOJ), Office of Justice Programs (OJP) to assist with the organization’s Acquisition Management and Strategic Sourcing initiatives.

Pivotal Insight will provide knowledgeable and experienced business consultants to support DOJ OJP in successfully executing a large number of procurements and achieving their strategic sourcing goals. Pivotal will partner closely with OJP to manage the procurement process, identify skilled and experienced vendors, and establish contracts with appropriate performance metrics. Pivotal Insight will also support OJP with a number of their other strategic initiatives such as the GSA SmartPay program and COTR Certification. “We are please to have the opportunity to further our relationship with the Office of Justice Programs,” said David Cooke, President and CEO of Pivotal Insight. “Pivotal looks forward to helping OJP establish effective acquisition planning and strategic sourcing management processes.”

About the DOJ Office of Justice Programs

Since 1984, the Office of Justice Programs has provided federal leadership in developing the nation's capacity to prevent and control crime, improve the criminal and juvenile justice systems, increase knowledge about crime and related issues, and assist crime victims. Through the programs developed and funded by its bureaus and offices, OJP works to form partnerships among federal, state, and local government officials to control drug abuse and trafficking; reduce and prevent crime; rehabilitate neighborhoods; improve the administration of justice in America; meet the needs of crime victims; and address problems such as gang violence, prison crowding, juvenile crime, and white-collar crime.
